

NEWS RELEASE

News Contact:

Cathy Summa-Wolfe, College of Marin, 415-485-9528, cathy.summawolfe@marin.cc.ca.us

College of Marin Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee Solicits New Members

KENTFIELD, Calif., March 8, 2006— Six committee members are being sought by the College of Marin to serve on the College of Marin Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee. The committee is seeking applications for members representing the community at large, a bona-fide taxpayer's association, a student enrolled and active in a community college support group, a member of a senior citizens' organization, a member active in a business organization representing the business community located in the district, a member representing the community at large, and a member active in a college support organization. New members will be appointed by the College of Marin Board of Trustees at its April meeting. Applications are due April 7, 2006. Oversight committee members cannot be employees, officials, vendors, consultants, or contractors of the College of Marin. For application information contact the College of Marin President's Office at 415.485.9502.

The College of Marin Board of Trustees passed a resolution on December 14, 2004 establishing the independent citizens' oversight committee. The committee is responsible for ensuring the College of Marin's financial accountability for projects funded by a $249.5 million bond earmarked for facilities modernization and passed by Marin County Voters in the November 2004 election with more than 63 percent voter approval. Measure C was a Proposition 39 bond that required the formation of a Citizen's Oversight Committee.

About College of Marin

College of Marin has been providing exceptional educational opportunities for students of all ages since 1926. Each semester, nearly 8,000 students are enrolled in over 1,100 credit classes. An additional 6,000 students take advantage of the College's many outstanding community education and community services classes. The College administration is located in Kentfield, CA. The College also operates the Indian Valley campus in Novato, CA.