Speech 120 – INTERPERSONAL COMMUNICATION

The College of Marin Catalog describes Speech 120 as follows:

Speech 120 – Interpersonal Communication (3)
(No prerequisite. Three lecture hours weekly)

Introduction to the principles of effective communication in interpersonal relationships. Study of verbal and nonverbal communication, person perception, conflict resolution, listening and communication barriers. Students will learn to identify communication behaviors and patterns in interpersonal relationships (both their own and others). (CSU/UC) AA/AS Area E, CSU Area A1, IGETC Area 1C

Please note the above-mentioned course fulfills the following requirements at the institutions listed below:

COLLEGE OF MARIN

- Fulfills the Communication and Analytical Thinking requirement (Area E) toward the General Education requirement for the Associate in Arts degree.
- Fulfills a requirement for the Associate in Arts degree in Speech at the College of Marin by being one of the speech classes that may be selected to complete the speech degree.
- Fulfills the Registered Nursing program communication skills requirement.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

- Transfers to UC as credit toward the Baccalaureate degree.

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY

- Transfers to CSU as credit toward the Baccalaureate degree.
- Fulfills a CSU General Education requirement (Area A1-Oral Communication), and IGETC (Area 1C – Oral Communication).