Definitions

Prevention activities increase awareness and minimize the potential for crisis in the workplace. Training is essential for all staff to learn how to recognize early warning signs, so that appropriate intervention can be provided for identified areas of conflict in the workplace.

Crisis or conflict constitutes any inappropriate or unreasonable disruption that interferes with the normal functioning of your work.

Acts of violence include any physical action, whether intentional or reckless, that harms or threatens the safety of self, another individual, or property.

A threat of violence includes any behavior that by its very nature could be interpreted by a reasonable person as intent to cause physical harm to self, another individual, or property.

Workplace includes off-campus locations as well as District-sponsored activities where faculty, staff, or student employees are engaged in District business or locations where incidents occur as a result of the person's relationship to the District community.

Crisis and Conflict Intervention

Any employee experiencing an unsafe work condition should immediately contact his/her supervisor or the Human Resources Office. The supervisor shall immediately notify the Human Resources Office about any acts or threats of violence or intimidation. The employee will be provided consultation regarding resources available to resolve the unsafe work condition.

It is the responsibility of all employees to immediately report threats, acts of violence, intimidation, or any other behavior which deliberately hurts or harms another person in the District to their immediate supervisor and District Police Department. Such reports will be promptly and thoroughly investigated.
Crisis Intervention Team

Training activities may include, but not be limited to, skill development in conflict resolution, communication, anger management, and early identification of any threat to personal safety.

Team advising activities may include individual consultations, peer mediation, conflict resolution services, and referral to outside sources.

Immediately upon notification of an act of violence or threat of violence or intimidation involving an employee, the team member notified will initiate Crisis Intervention Team procedures as stated below.

In the event of an act or threat of violence or intimidation, the team will investigate the incident and forward the results of the completed investigation to the Human Resources Office for consideration. Law enforcement will take appropriate action if the incident involves injuries or criminal activity.

The team will coordinate available resources to provide intervention, consultation, or referral which may include arranging for counselors to work with victims and observers of the incident.

Restraining Orders/Court Orders
An employee shall notify law enforcement of any restraining orders/court orders when named as a plaintiff and provide a copy of the order to District Police Department.
