RE: College of Marin – Follow-Up Report 2011 in Response to 2010 Self Study Recommendations

Dear Dr. Beno:

On behalf of Marin Community College District, I am pleased to enclose our Follow-Up Report 2011 required by the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges as set forth in its letter of January 31, 2011.

Since the College received the eight recommendations in the above-referenced letter at the beginning of February 2011, the College has collectively taken each recommendation very seriously and accomplished significant progress. The Follow-Up Report is submitted with full support of each of the college's constituent groups as well as the District's Board of Trustees. We are confident that we are well-positioned with our strategies to produce timely resolution of the recommendations; however, also are realistic in projecting that some action steps will need to be executed on a continuous step-by-step basis to achieve thorough, high-quality results.

We appreciate your review and consideration of our Follow-Up Report and look forward to the team's visit on October 31st. Please do not hesitate to call if you have any questions. I can be reached at (415) 485-9400 and Dr. Chialin Hsieh, the Accreditation Liaison Officer, can be reached at (415) 485-9545.

Sincerely,
