Standards for Probation

A student who has enrolled in at least 12 units and has a cumulative GPA of less than 2.0 will be subject to probation.

A student who has enrolled in at least 12 units and has a cumulative NPG of 50% or more will be subject to probation.

Standards during a Semester of Probation

Academic: A student who does not have at least a 2.0 semester GPA during a semester of probation will be dismissed.

Progress: A student who has more than a 50% semester NPG during a semester of probation will be dismissed.

All probationary students are required to meet with a counselor and complete or update a Student Educational Plan.

Probationary students may not register in more than 13 units; however the College Petition Committee may approve additional units in unusual circumstances.

Standards for Dismissal

Academic: A student who has less than a cumulative GPA of 1.75 in three consecutive semesters (not including summer) will be dismissed.

Progress: A student who has 50% or more NPG in three consecutive semesters (not including summer) will be dismissed.

Readmission after Dismissal

In order to be considered for re-admission, dismissed students must file a Petition to Return (forms available in the Office of Admissions and Records).

Students seeking readmission must complete or update a Student Educational Plan with a Counselor.

Students seeking readmission may be required to make an appointment with the College Petition Committee.

Readmitted students may generally not enroll in more than 13 units and may be limited to fewer units. Other restrictions may also be imposed.
